

MVGS BOARD MEETING SEPTEMBER 6, 1994

Present: Damaris Reynolds, Ed Stratton, Jim Russell, Jo Triggs, Judy Beals, Ken Bielman, and Mabelle Martsching.

Treasurer's report August 31 bank balance of $1247.13

COMMITTEE REPORTS:

Library: Discussion held on need to close library about 12:40 at Saturday meetings because of need to move into other building for the business meeting.

Meeting Room change needed because of city fire rules re. our increased numbers in attendance. The Methodist Church next door will allow us usage of a room for $10 month. No contract has yet been signed, but verbal arrangements made with their newly installed pastor. A "thank you" card will be signed by members at Sat. general meeting, to be sent along with our check.

Queries Mabelle is working on the following surnames:

Van Swollen; King-Norton of King's Valley; Bilyew (pronounced "Blue"). A prospective October visitor from Nebraska is searching information on one Samuel Wesley Smith.

Service Projects: G.T. computer data volunteers are not all obtaining sufficient information. Reminders will be made.

Field Trips: The Eugene trip had only a few interested, so they car pooled rather than renting a van as planned. It was reported to be "a very good day"..Suggestion made to consider a trip to Portland Forum , possible dates Sept. 26 or Oct. 3rd.

Membership: Jim R. reported six renewals since his last list.

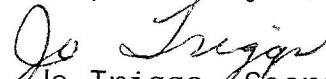

Merchandizing Damaris reminded us that items will be needed for our annual December auction; also for Sept. 17th garage sale at the Brooktree Apartments.

Newsletter: Ed has abundant items for this month.

Reminders: Kinkos (copies) will run an October ½ price sale. The rule for checking out our library books is "a limit of five items per membership, not per person.

Next meeting: October 3rd at home of Damaris Reynolds.

Respectfully submitted,

Jo Triggs, Secretary
