

Executive Board Meeting, 8 December 1988

Attending: Matuszak, Kiger, Martsching, Reynolds, Rudisill,
Stratton, Yoke

Damaris Reynolds displayed a publication, "Second Boat", which consisted mainly of queries, and material on immigrants before 1800. However, it had a very interesting announcement of the National Genealogical Conference meeting to be held in Seattle, August 16-19, 1989. This is the Federation of Genealogical Societies, and the agenda of last year's meeting were interesting and varied. Tapes of these lectures are available.

The secretary was instructed to write to Seattle for details.

Post Office Box keys were distributed, one to the secretary.

The speakers for the next meetings will be Dick Milligan in January and John Matuszak in February.

The meeting Saturday will feature the Auction, Ted Gump, auctioneer, and members should not forget to bring items.

The business meeting will be followed by installation of officers, then ~~1/4~~ break, auction and refreshments.

Lee Rudisill will find someone to help the treasurer in accepting dues at the meeting, and also someone to assist at the auction.

Round Table discussion will focus on NY, NJ, MD and DC.
