

MID *VALLEY GENEALOGY SOCIETY

December 13, 1980 MEETING

The meeting was called to order by Pres. Pamela Frazier.

Reading of the minutes by Sec. Frances Hallam

New Members

Mrs. Alison Leisse

Pat Coolan

Gladys Akin

Treasurer's Report by L. W. Stryker

Old Business

We still need a Volunteer for the Scrapbook.

Mrs Murphy would still like DAR Magazine of October 1967.

Mrs. Bailey reports success in handling ~~Phone Directories~~ The Library Books

There are still old membership lists on hand.

Mrs A. Broadley gave us a check from Favor Pack. And thanks all those who have turned in the labels of Favor Pack and Sanitiam. Keep them coming in.

Mr Stryker reminds us that he is still taking membership dues.

New Business

More help is needed on answering queries.

Mrs E. Akin announces a new line of Binders, which can be bought from her for $5.50. She also showed us a Christmas card from the Fosdick Family who have a new arrival.

We were happy to see Mr. Mike Porter who was visiting while on his Christmas vacation from College.

We are to have an interesting program coming up regarding the one room School houses of Benton County.

Mrs. Pam Frazier gave gifts to outgoing officers and thanks them all

Auction was held. This time besides the books there were homemade jams and jellies and handcrafts brought in by the members. Results were both fun and considerable profit to our treasury.

A get well card was signed by all for Harriet Moore who we regret to say is still in the hospital.

New Members were Installed and meeting then adjourned.

We were then presented with a program of lovely music on the harp by Jeffery Parsons, son of Theran and Velma Parsons. The numbers were: Priere, by A. Hasselmans. Impromptu-Caprice, by Gabriel Pierne, Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring, by J.S. Bach, arranged by Mimi Allen and Medley of Christmas Carols (Away in the manger, The First Noel, Silent Night) arranged by Agnes Peterson Page.

December 13, 1980 MEETING

The meeting was called to order by Pres. Pamela Frasier. Mrs. V. Nichols then opened a question and answer period regarding this fine harp which as she put it not many of us have seen close up. Thanks to Jeff and his father we learned a great deal about the woods used (4) kinds and the strings and pedals etc.

New Members
Mrs. Alison Laise
Pat Coonan
Gladye Akin

Frances Hallam

Frances Hallam L. W. Hallam
Secretary

Old Business
We still need a Volunteer for the Scrapbook.

Mrs. Bailey reports success in handling ~~the library books~~ Mrs. Murphy would still like DAR Magazine of October 1987.

There are still old membership lists on hand. Mrs. A. Broadley gave us a check from Favor Pack. And thanks all those who have turned in the labels of Favor Pack and Sanitiam. Keep them coming in.

Mr. Stryker reminds us that he is still taking membership dues.

New Business
More help is needed on answering queries. Mrs. E. Akin announces a new line of Binders, which can be bought from her for $2.50. She also showed us a Christmas card from the Goodick family who have a new arrival.

We were happy to see Mr. Mike Porter who was visiting while on his Christmas vacation from College.

We are to have an interesting program coming up regarding the one room School houses of Benton County.

*-----*
Mrs. Pam Frasier gave gifts to outgoing officers and thanks them all. Auction was held. This time besides the books there were homemade jams and jellies and handkerchiefs brought in by the members. Results were both fun and considerable profit to our treasury.

A get well card was signed by all for Harriet Moore who we regret to say is still in the hospital.

New Members were installed and meeting then adjourned.

We were then presented with a program of lovely music on the harp by Jeffery Parsons, son of Thern and Velma Parsons. The numbers were: Priore, by A. Hasselmann. Improvpt-Caprice, by Gabriel Pierre. Jeau, Joy of Man's Dearing, by J.S. Bach, arranged by Mimi Allen and Medley of Christmas Carols (away in the manger, The First Noel, Silent

(Night) arranged by Joyce Peterson Harp.