

The Mid-Valley Genealogical Society met on June 9, 1979 in the Ritschey Room of the Corvallis Public Library in Corvallis Oregon.

The meeting was called to order by the vice president Mrs. Velma Parsons.

Guests were introduced, minutes of the May meeting read and approved as read.

Treasurer's report read and accepted as read.

A summer bus trip was discussed and all options named, size of bus available, that Hammond Bus Co could supply for trip, cost $10 per person etc.

A ^{Motion} ~~discussion~~ was made ^{by Mrs. Aiken} to proceed as we have in past year, no formal business meeting or program. Room open for study as usual.

Motion seconded & passed.

Harriet Moore called for volunteers to take the Brownsville papers and cut out articles suitable for society's scrapbook.

Valerie Nichols said she would do this.

Question of books resumed in Sept. Meeting adjourned at 1:35 P.M. at 2 P.M. Mrs. Dorothy Ballard reviewed her book entitled "Honey-moon on Horseback". This book was about her parents who traveled one thousand miles in one hundred eleven days on horseback from St Paul Minn. to Seattle Wash. soon after their wedding.

The travelers had many interesting events in the long journey.
