

Eakles

The Mid-Valley Geneological Society May meeting was called to order at 1:05 by President Mildred Hawkins. April minutes were read and approved. Mr Gump reported that there was $152.50 on hand in the treasury. Bills were presented and approved to be paid.

Arleene Incles will republish during the last of June. Family History. Photograph analys<sup>is</sup>. Mrs Incles could speak here in October. A planning session for her program should be held in the summer.

Retired Senior Volunteer Program (RSVP) help is being used to work on card indexing of books in the library that we would use on meeting day. When the indexing is finished a new schedule will be used for bringing books to the meetings.

A show and tell meeting is planned for the June Meeting. Bring something interesting you found about your family tree.

Elizabeth displayed double post cards as a means of cutting expenses when mail replys are needed.

A tour of the first communal living settlement in Oregon, Arrora, can be arranged in July. Roberta Ebert will investigate bus costs and days the buses can be available.

Monday May 10, starting at 10:00 a.m. the Portland <sup>Forum</sup> Quorum will meet. Location is 14 and Marrion in Salem at the Neighbors of Woodcraft Hall.

Mr VanCleave reports that the Herritage Society by-laws are now being adopted to become part of a National Herritage Society. It is hoped this move will strengthen ties.

Geneological display at the South Albany High School Library has held the students interest longer than any other display. Thank you Elizabeth for making and keeping up the display.

Meeting ajorned at 1:55 followed by program.

Respectfully

Roberta V Ebert

Roberta V. Ebert Secretary