

NOVEMBER 1975

The meeting was called to order at 1:00 p.m. by Elizabeth Atkin, President. The secretary's report was read and approved with one exception--Reverend Longworth was a Methodist minister, not United Brethren as listed. The treasurer's report was given. There is a request that membership's be paid before February this year. A report on the books new in the library was given.

Mr Van Cleive gave a report of the Heritage Council meeting of October 18th. This group is ready to be an active catalyst with both the historical and genealogical societies. Member genealogist societies can have one vote in their business meetings.

Susie has asked members to save Flavor Pack labels and Betty Crocker coupons for exchange for cash.

The list of officers compiled by the nomination committee was read by pres Elizabeth Atkin. The list was as follows--President: Mildred Hawkins, 1st Vice President: Velma Parson, 2nd Vice President: Edna Wiese, Secretary: Roberta Ebert, Treasure: Theodore Gump, Directors: Elizabeth Atkin and L.V. Stryker, Jr. These officers were passed by unanimous vote.

Mrs Moore shared a copie of the National Geneology Society Quarterly that had information of resources of Illinose resourch.

Mr Gump shared research resources to use when searching in Pennsylvania.

Mr Van Cleave introduced the speaker, Mr Jack Smith, Pioneer Cemetary Association of Oregon, Salem. Mr Smith read a report prepared to inform the legislators of condiditons that exist with Pioneer Cemeteries. There is a need for state authority and for a standard for these cemeteries. Help is needed with maps and records. Some of the pioneer cemeteries are eligable for Federal assistance of grant money but are unaware of this.
