

The regular meeting of the mid-Willamette Genealogy Society met at one o'clock at the Corvallis library on Oct. 14, 1978 with 28 members and guests present.

There were no minutes to be read. The treasurers report was read and accepted.

President Mr. Gump announced that M. Ebert Anderson was giving a seminar in Portland Nov. 4th. He also announced that KDOO radio station will have the dates and information on the air.

New Business - The new nominating committee will consist of Mr. Gump, Frances Mallam and Peggy Mason. Mr. Stryker agreed to continue as the treasurer.

Frances Mallam showed and explained the book she has been working of her family history.

Mr. Gump and Mr. Beard told of the trips they took this summer.

The speaker was Mrs. Webster. She spoke of the importance of photography in genealogy and showed slides of the houses she has lived in and the furniture in them. She said the slides would show future generations what the houses and furniture looked like at this time.

The meeting convened at 3:15.

Respectfully yours

Peggy Mason