

Sept 8, 1979

The Mid Valley Genealogical Society meet in the Ratchie room of the Corvallis Library.

There was no business meeting. Several members shared their summer research, trips ect.

Mrs. Akin told of her searching out the ^{abandoned} cemetery where her Grandmother was buried.

Mrs. Nichols took a trip to New York to search for her husbands ancestors.

Mrs. Lisa Mason found all she needed in "Grandmas attic and House". Trunks full of genealogical material. A book of five (5) generations entitled "Generations before us," of Rhode Island and Mass.

Editha Hughes Read "The Longk-nife", "March to the Western Co". One of her ancestors fled from Western Mo, to Eastern Kansas to Vashon Island Wash. to escape revenge's because he had murdered a man.

Mr. Beard, traveled by bus to So. Carolina, Cape Cod, town of Sandwich, Plymouth Mass. The first shoe maker there was Charles Beard.

Clara J. Jans
Secretary