

Minutes of the September 12, 1981 Meeting

Mid-Valley Genealogical Society, Corvallis, Oregon

Held in the Elizabeth Richey Room of the Corvallis Library.

Meeting called to order by Pres., Pam Frazier. 1.00 PM

Reading of the June minutes read by Sec. Frances Hallam.

Reading of the Treasure's report by L.V. Stryker, Jr, Tress. Copy attached
Mr. Stryker read the names of membership cards he has ready and waiting to be picked up by their owners. He also called our attention to a number of xeroxed copies on sale by the Society.

Old Business:

Audrey Broadley reminded us that she can soon send in the Santiam-Flavor Pack labels. We now are receiving three cents per label. These funds are added to the Society funds.

New business:

This September meeting is our last meeting to be held in the Ritchey Room

The library intends to use the room for a workshop.

Pam Frazier stated we would like to find another place that is rent free.

And that we should take our time deciding on a new location.

Volunteers were asked for and a period of discussion and suggestions followed: Edna Wiese had already checked with the Senior Center and found it was not open to us for the purpose.

A Committee of Volunteers were accepted, They are:

1. Mary Jane Bailey

4. Peggy Mason

2. Joan Mueller

5. Edna Wiese

3. Velma Parsons

6. Maybelle Marsh

Martschenko

A list of possible locations was read by Joan Mueller.
meeting adjourned.

An informal program by the membership followed

1. Mary Jane Bailey told of her trip to Illinois and where maps and platte books could be found. Also her good fortune in being invited to visit a former family home, courtesy of the present owners.

2. Elizabeth Akin showed us her large collection of postcards sent by friends and family to her mother, mounted in a neat set of book, specially made for that purpose.

3. ~~Frances spoke on her trip to Chicago, Ill.~~ Frances Hallam spoke on her trip to Chicago, Ill and the treasure of family history found and photographed in her sister's home.

4. Joan Mueller told of her trip to Europe and research done there.

%. Pam Frazier shared with us an outline of her family research with many illustrations of materials and method of filing she uses.

visitors were: Irene Smithe, James Stevenson, Danell Knight, Maurine Merryman and Frances Hallam Sec.
~~Martha Marsh.~~

Martha

Frances Hallam

Meeting adjourned